*2025 End of Year
Workbook*

✠ Invocation ✠

O God of quiet beginnings, You who speak in the whisper and the returning breath, gather my wandering mind into stillness and call my heart back to its true home.

Sanctify these pages I now prepare, that the work I set down here may be honest, attentive, and whole.

Grant me the grace to begin again, the courage to let go, and the faithfulness to remain.

Amen.

⌘ Notes to Begin ⌘

*Write what you bring into this season:
the questions, the hopes, the hesitations.*

✠ The Year Behind Me ✠

Sit for one minute in silence. Breathe slowly.

What did this year ask of me?

What did it teach me?

Where did I soften?

Where did I resist?

What blessings did I overlook?

What wounds did I carry farther than I needed to?

Let the year speak in its own voice.

O God of time and tenderness, receive the weight of this year. What I release – let it rest. What I keep – let it deepen. Amen.

✠ The Year Ahead of Me ✠

Sit still. Place a hand on your chest.

What do I desire for the year to come?

What will I need to leave behind?

What truth do I want to carry forward?

What kind of person must I become to write what is asking to be written?

Write one sentence:

” In 2026, I intend to remain faithful to...”

Let this be a vow more than a goal.

✠ Closing Rite ✠

"In returning and rest we shall be saved."

Reading

Job 42:5-6

"I had heard of You by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees You."

Ritual

1. Light a candle
2. Read one paragraph from The Rule (or your notes).
3. Sit in silence for one minute.
4. Extinguish the candle.

Closing Prayer

Grant me a clear mind, an open heart, and the courage to remain with the work You have placed before me. Amen.
